

Hello Belvidere

13-15 January 2023

Come on down to the Belvidere campsite near Australind to enjoy a busy weekend of doing nothing.

Members can make their own way down to the Belvidere campsite on Friday or Saturday.

Saturday can be spent on the nearby beaches, sightseeing around Australind and Bunbury or even trying some crabbing or fishing.

On Sunday we will spend the morning at Buffalo Beach hopefully being able to swim and interact with some dolphins heading north along the beach as far as we can.

Don't forget to bring along your fishing gear, scoop nets, bathers, sunscreen and hats.

Please note that camping fees will apply
